

HIGH SCHOOL FALL WOOD BAT BASEBALL LEAGUE

Incoming 2011-2014 High School Players (Ages 14-18)

Two (2) League Locations set for 2010 in St. John and Portage:

The DK High School Fall Wood Bat League has featured players from 24 high schools across Indiana and Illinois. In 2010, the DK Fall League has expanded with a second location to account for the high volume of players that want to participate. The DK WEST LEAGUE plays at the beautiful Heartland Park in St. John, IN while the newly added DK EAST LEAGUE will be played at Portage High School. Players may choose to sign up for the league of their choice. This decision will most likely be dependent on where the player lives and the drive.

2010 League Highlights!

DK Leagues combine Competition with Player Development

Our staff is dedicated to providing a clean, competitive atmosphere where players can work on the fundamentals of baseball, learn more about themselves as a player, and get the opportunity to develop new skills to reach the next level in their game.

- Each league is limited to 8 teams and 96 players. 12 players per team (everyone gets equal playing time).
- All players in both leagues will be given a batting cage membership to Diamond Kings (valid during league play).
- Team coaches will be Diamond Kings instructors or College and/or High School coaches.
- Teams will play 8 regular season games. An All-Star game will take place at the end of the season @ U.S. Steel Yard, home of the Gary Railcats Professional Baseball Club (DK East All Stars vs. DK West All Stars)
- Each player will receive a team dri-fit shirt & fitted hat.
- Players can bring their own wood bat. Team wood bats will be available for use and provided by Hoosier Bat Co.
- Games have a 1:45 time limit or 6 innings. High School rules enforced. Team standings posted online: www.traindk.com.
